

Law Tested In Chrysler Strike Riot

Detroit, May 18. (AP) — One of Chrysler Corporation's strikebound Detroit area plants was patrolled by state police today to prevent recurrence of the first picket line violence in its auto workers six-day strike.

These other developments colored the auto-labor picture:

1—Threat of the CIO United Auto Workers' second postwar walkout against General Motors Corp.

2—Official action by Michigan authorities to test a state labor law in the Chrysler strike. The union immediately blocked such a move by obtaining a circuit court injunction.

3—A truce reached by the UAW and Chrysler permitting white collar workers to enter the company's Keweenaw plant and issue overdue paychecks for the strikers' last full work week.

4—The second court injunction issued against the UAW, restraining picketing at the Marysville, Mich., plant.

Some 75,000 Chrysler workers walked out of 16 plants across the country last Wednesday, demanding that the company add 10 cents to their $1.50 hourly wages. The UAW-CIO originally asked 30 cents more per hour, but slashed the demand on the eve of the strike.

Michigan's Governor Kira Sigler came here yesterday to oversee state troopers he had sent into suburban Highland Park to quell fist-fighting and rock-throwing disturbances at the Chrysler plant there.

Meanwhile, at the state capital in Lansing, Attorney General Eugene F. Black issued his first orders to bring the Bonine - Tripp labor law to a test.

Shortage Of Food Felt In Manchuria

War-Isolated Areas Get Air Relief Supplies

Peiping, May 18. (AP) — An aerial effort to relieve the critical food shortage in the Communist-occupied government areas of Manchuria was begun today.

The U. S.-China relief mission started air-borne shipment of 43 tons of agricultural implements to Mukden, metropolis of the rich, Japanese-developed territory. Hundreds of tons of seed will follow.

Mukden's immediate area of about six million acres is struggling to combat the hunger of about 10,000,000 persons, the relief office said. This means about 90 per cent of Manchuria's population has been crowded into about five per cent of the sprawling territory.

Mukden and other government-held cities to the north have been cut off from China proper for months by rail and highway. There are increasing signs of a Communist offensive to envelope all of Manchuria.

Banks Fleeched Out Of Over $70,000 by Dapper Young Man

Tacoma, Wash., May 18. (AP) — A dapper young man who testified in court that he had fleeced banks out of at least $70,000 as a member of a nationwide ring was fined $750 yesterday and sentenced to six years in prison.

The 28-year-old man, Raymond J. Karasek, Jackson, Mich., appeared before Federal Judge Charles H. Leavy for sentencing on four counts of mail theft to which he pleaded guilty April 29.

Karasek told the court that he and other members of the ring stole bank statements from apartment house and residence mail boxes, then forged checks on the accounts and cashed them at banks.

Jews Capture Old Wall City; Arabs Trapped

(By The Associated Press)

Jews said the old walled city of Acre surrendered unconditionally today after a 72-hour street battle. Haganah, the Army of Israel, had claimed 4,000 Arabs were trapped in the northern Palestine town, just over the boundary from the new Jewish state.

The Jews claimed also to have drowned 500 Arabs, including troops from armored columns, by opening a dam just south of Gallilee.

Light bombers attacked Tel Aviv for the fourth day running. The 45-minute raid was the longest yet, and more bombs fell than before. The Arabs said numerous fires were started there yesterday.

A Beirut broadcast said Egyptian and Trans-Jordan troops had made a juncture at Lydda, 20 miles southeast of Tel Aviv. A few Saudi Arabian soldiers were said to have joined the Egyptians. Other successes were claimed by the Arabs in north and south Palestine, on the ground and aloft.

Haganah, the Jewish army, said the Arabs had started a massed

Ban On Communism Approved By House

Hopes Pinned On Senate To Defeat Measure

Washington, May 18. (AP) — Backers of a bill to shackle the Communist party in this country drove the measure toward House passage today.

Although a stack of amendments may extend debate, final House approval with no major change was forecast.

Opponents told newsmen they are pinning their hopes on the Senate to defeat the measure drafted by the un-American Activities Committee.

The measure is known as the Mundt Bill, so named for its sponsor, Rep. Mundt (R-SD), a committee member.

Rep. Charles (D-Calif.), who is fighting the bill, admitted that not more than 35 or 40 votes will be cast against it in the House. But he said the Senate "will never pass this legislation."

The bill now provides penalties for anyone advocating establishment in this country of a totalitarian form of government controlled from abroad. It does not outlaw the Communist party, but would require it to file periodic financial statements and membership lists with Congress.

Father Flanagan To Be Buried At Boys Town, Nebr.

Boys Town, Neb., May 19. (AP) — The body of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward J. Flanagan will be buried Friday within the grounds of the "Little Town for Men" which he founded.

In fulfillment of the famous priest's request, the Rev. Edmund C. Walsh, acting director of Boys Town, said Father Flanagan would be buried in the northeast corner of the Dowd Memorial chapel.

"He wanted to be near his boys and where they could visit him at any time," the Rev. Walsh said.

Funeral services for Father Flanagan, who died in Berlin Saturday, will be held Friday at 7:30 a. m. and at 10 a. m. in Dowd chapel, the Rev. Walsh said. The first mass, he said, will be for residents of Boys Town, members of the Boys Town staff and their families. The 10 a. m. mass will be open to the public.

Australia Refuses To Sell Surplus Rifles to Arabs

Canberra, May 18. (AP) — Prime Minister J. B. Chifley said tonight representatives of Arab and other eastern countries have tried to buy 68,000 surplus rifles from Australia at three times their value. He said the offers were rejected.

Chifley told a news conference that the government had decided to convert the weapons—203 caliber rifles—into sporting guns. "We'll sell anything to everybody if we've got it," Chifley said in a declaration of policy, "except munitions, which we refuse to sell to anybody."

Detroit to Miami Plane Sets Record In 3½-Hour Flight

New York, May 18. (AP) — A new all-time commercial airplane speed record between Detroit and Miami was announced today by Eastern Air Lines.

A new time constellation made the trip non-stop last night in three hours, 30 minutes and 23 seconds. The flight, averaging 328 miles per hour, clipped six minutes and six seconds from the previous record.

Hearings Gel Going On New Draft Bill

House Committee Cool Toward UMT Plan

Washington, May 18. (AP) — A hostile and reluctant House Rules Committee opens hearings today on draft legislation.

Its job is to decide whether the House should be allowed to vote on the bill sponsored by Chairman Andrews (R-NY) of the House Armed Services Committee for a two-year revival of Selective Service.

All signs are that the sessions will be stormy and will last several days.

Several members privately made this forecast of the eventual outcome: The bill will be approved, and the committee will also reaffirm opposition to universal military training in any form.

The rules committee has kept a UMT bill stuck away on a back shelf for almost nine months.

The Andrews Bill would require men from 18 through 30 to register with local draft boards. Those from 19 through 25 would be liable for two years' service. Most veterans would be exempt.

Lewis Squares Off For Mine Pay Fight

Coal Operators Oppose Royalty Increases

By HAROLD W. WARD

Washington, May 18. (AP) — John L. Lewis and the soft coal operators squared off today for their annual contract battle.

For the preliminary skirmishing, there was a "town meeting" at the Shoreham hotel where representatives of both sides were called on to outline their stands.

The United Mine Workers' chief entered the meeting with a commission from the UMW's 200-man policy committee to bargain for a new contract covering at least 11 subjects. The present agreement expires June 30.

The operators generally are opposed to any more wage or pension royalty increases. They now pay 10 cents a ton royalty to finance the welfare fund.

The miners receive $13.05 a day for eight hours of work. They spend 6½ hours of that time digging coal. The balance allowance for underground travel and meals.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics estimates their weekly earnings average $75.78.

New Head of Israel Recovers Rapidly; Begins Big Job Soon

New York, May 18. (AP) — Dr. Chaim Weizmann, 73, who has been named president of the council of government of Israel, is reported "recovering rapidly" and is expected to resume normal activities within a few days.

His physician, Dr. Josef Cohn, said last night, however, that Weizmann will have to "rest more than normally for a few days more as a precautionary measure."

The statesman and scientist has been forced to take these easy recently because of exhaustion caused by overwork and the strain of his activities.

Dr. Cohn said the Hebrew leader has no particular ailment. Weizmann formally accepted the Israel post yesterday.

Baltimore Police Question Two Men In Reuther Shooting

Baltimore, May 18. (AP) — Capt. of Detectives Henry J. Kriss said today he had advised Detroit police that two men arrested here apparently had nothing to do with the shooting last month of Walter Reuther, president of the CIO United Automobile Workers.

Kriss said the two would be held pending Detroit's reply to his message outlining the circumstances of their arrest and the results of questioning.

Acting on a "tip," Baltimore detectives picked up the pair yesterday and docketed them as "held for investigation, suspected of assault and shooting."

Winter Does Encore For Lancaster, Pa.

Lancaster, Pa., May 18. (AP) — Old man winter took a curtain call in this farming region yesterday.

A freak storm dumped tons of hail stones, ranging in size from that of peas to small cherries, in several sections of rural Lancaster county.

While their fathers were becoming the damage to crops, many children got out their sleds and enjoyed a bit of sledding.

No Deal Yet To End Long Meat Tieup

Chicago, May 18. (AP) — CIO meat handlers today turned down a major packer's proposal to end the two months old meat strike.

As a result, there was a sharp drop in hopes for quick settlement of the violence-marked dispute.

New negotiations broke off shortly after midnight without any announcement of when they may resume. The talks began yesterday.

Swift & Company last night offered three conditions as a basis for settling the nationwide strike which began March 16. The CIO Packinghouse Workers a few hours later rejected the proposal.

The union president, Ralph Helstein, objected specifically to a Swift proposal which he said would let the companies discharge any striking employee.

He said there is "no point talking about any of the rest" of the Swift suggestions—one of them an offer of a nine cent hourly wage increase effective last May 3.

AFI Meat Workers accepted the nine cents offer and did not strike. The CIO union has held out for 29 cents. The present scale paid two thirds of the 100,000 CIO workers is $1.10 an hour or less.

In Iowa, meanwhile, two CIO local unions voted to end their strike with agreements including nine-cent hourly wage increases.

At Charles City, Ia., a mob threw rocks and bottles at two homes of workers at a strikebound Decker Company packinghouse in near-by Mason City.

laboratory and machine shop on the first floor, and locker rooms on the second.

Schillon said eyewitnesses told him they believed all but about 11 of the men in the locker room had left before the adjoining tank exploded.

The blasted tank was one of a group containing tar products, by-products of Koppers coke manufacture.

Two men who had just left the building said they were hurled into knee-deep water of the nearby Hackensack river.

Names of the dead and missing were not immediately available.

The blast, heard over a 15-mile area, sent a sheet of flame into the air over the plant's tar and chemical division.

Against low-hanging clouds was reported seen 10 miles away. A series of minor explosions followed the first blast.

Hudson County Police Lt. George Kelly, in headquarters a half-mile away, said the intense glare "seemed to envelope the police building. It was the closest thing to an atomic bomb explosion I ever want to see."

Firemen were cautiously feeling their way through the gutted building early today seeking trace of the missing men.

Fire Chief William Wandnas said he feared the second floor of the building might collapse on fire search squads.

Company officials refused information as to the cause of the blast, estimate of damage or names of the missing men.

Schillon said about 20 men were in the building during the shift change. The building housed a

Waldo, Wis., Depot Smashed By Wreck On Milwaukee Road

Milwaukee, May 18. (AP) — Seventeen cars on a northbound Milwaukee road freight train ran wild after a derailment today, smashing the Waldo, Wis., station near Sheboygan and spilling across highway 28, division headquarters reported.

M. V. Cunningham, captain of the Milwaukee Road police here, said the train crew reported to Green Bay that no one was injured in the accident.

The report said the Waldo station was demolished, he said. There was no word concerning the cause of the derailment.

Dickering Resumed In Railway Dispute

Washington, May 18. (AP) — Under White House prodding, the railroad and three disgruntled unions began new efforts today to settle the dispute which forced government seizure of the trains.

The meeting of negotiating committees was scheduled last 25 hours before Federal Justice T. Alan Goldsborough is to act on a plea for a continued court order to keep the rail unions' members on the job.

A nationwide strike by the Locomotive Engineers, Firemen and Enginemen, and Switchmen had been set for a week ago, May 11. But President Truman ordered the Army to take over operation of the rail lines. The government then obtained an anti-strike order from Justice Goldsborough. It is good until tomorrow.

If the judge should decide against extending the order, the unions might strike. They made it clear that they would not work just because the government had made a "paper seizure" of the rails.

Technically, the Army is running the nation's major railroads. Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall divided the nation into seven areas and appointed a railroad president in each to run the trains, with the rank of colonel.

In addition, he named a three-man advisory board, including vice-president Edward F. McGraw of the Radio Corporation of America, a labor-relations expert, to help him.

Whiteley Resigns Conservation Post

Lansing, May 18. (AP) — The immediate resignation of Harry H. Whiteley, publisher of the Dowagiac Daily News, as a member of the state conservation commission was accepted today by Governor Sigler.

Whiteley, who has served since 1927, said the pressure of business forced his resignation.

Same Old Russian Propaganda Dished Up For Washington

Washington, May 18. (AP) — The state department said today Premier Stalin's latest statement on peace "is encouraging" but that the issues proposed for settlement do not stand between the United States and the Soviet Union alone.

BY EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, May 18. (AP) — Prime Minister Stalin says Russia is willing, if the United States is, to accept Henry A. Wallace's recent "open letter" to him as the foundation for peaceful settlement of Soviet-American quarrels.

In a statement dated yesterday and released by the Soviet press department last night, Stalin replied to proposals made by Wallace at a political rally in New York a week ago today.

"I do not know," Stalin said, in his first public pronouncement in more than a month, "whether the United States government approves of Mr. Wallace's program as a basis for agreement between the U. S. S. R. and the United States."

"As far as the government of the U. S. S. R. is concerned, it considers that Mr. Wallace's program should serve as a good and fruitful basis for such an agreement and for the development of international cooperation."

Six Aims Listed

(These are the six objectives toward which Wallace, in his "open letter," said the United States and Russia must take "definite, decisive steps.")

(1. "General reduction of armaments—outlawing all methods of mass destruction.

(2. "Stopping the export of weapons by any nation to any other nation.

(3. "The resumption of unrestricted trade (except for goods related to war) between the two countries.

(4. "The free movement of citizens, students and newspapermen between and within the two countries.

(5. "The resumption of free exchange of scientific information and scientific material between the two nations.

(6. "The re-establishment of a re-invigorated UNRRA or the constitution of some other United Nations agency for the distribution of international relief."

Washington, May 18. (AP) — The White House remained silent today on Premier Stalin's acceptance of Henry A. Wallace's proposal for a discussion of differences between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Two Appointments Planned by Sigler

Lansing, May 18. (AP) — Governor Sigler "would like to be able" to send his appointments as health commissioner and corrections commissioner to the legislature on Thursday.

The governor said today that sending the names of Dr. G. D. Cummings and Joseph W. Sanford to the legislators "would all depend on the attitude of the Senate."

Sigler, in addition, said he and Cummings are "still looking" for a permanent health commissioner, because Cummings wants to return to his former job as director of the state health laboratories.

Court Frees Coal Miners Of Contempt

Washington, May 18. (AP) — The civil contempt conviction against John L. Lewis and the United Mine Workers was dismissed today at the government's request.

Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough, however, took under consideration a government request to end the anti-strike injunction against Lewis and the union.

Goldsborough said the plea for dropping the injunction came as a surprise and he was not prepared to rule on it immediately.

Goldsborough added he is not convinced that there is no danger of a new coal strike.

The injunction was issued by Goldsborough April 21. It replaced a temporary restraining order of April 3.

It was obtained under the Taft-Hartley Act to end a six weeks coal strike, touched off by a dispute over pensions for elderly miners.

In seeking the dismissals, Attorney General Tom Clark informed the court the government felt the pension dispute is being handled appropriately, that the miners are at work and the "public interest x x x is secure."

Lewis and the union were convicted of both civil and criminal contempt for failing to obey a restraining order against a work stoppage.

Lewis was fined $20,000 and the union $140,0

GARBAGE SKED BEING REVISED

Spring Cleanup Moving Satisfactorily

The city garbage collection schedule is being revised this week and a definite schedule will be announced for regular collections beginning next week, Joe Holmes, public works superintendent, has announced.

One of the two new garbage trucks made the collections in the alley of First and Second streets Monday and will work on the North side the remainder of the week. The other truck started on the east end of the city, working westward. When the time schedule is determined, it is planned to maintain schedules within a half day so that residents will know when to put their garbage containers by the alleys for collection.

Holmes also emphasized again that there will be no second general spring collection with power equipment. Rubbish or ashes not ready for collection when the first pickup is made must be put into containers of not more than 50 gallon capacity. This material will be collected in the regular weekly garbage collections.

The spring cleanup has already been completed as far west as 12th street.

Non-Stop Gamblers Make $39,000 Haul At Las Vegas, Nev.

Las Vegas, Nev., May 18 (AP)—Three non-stop gamblers rode a phenomenal winning streak today and reported they were $39,000 ahead on Las Vegas roulette wheels in the last eight days.

The trio, relieving each other in continuous play since May 10, are Jack Cortez, 32, of New York; Roy Walford, 23, San Diego, Calif.; and Albert Hibbs, 23, of Chillicothe, Ohio.

Their play attracted large crowds. Some bystanders cashed in on the trio's "system" of consistently playing number one.

One spectator who began with $3 in nickel chips cashed in $3,300 yesterday.

The trio gradually had raised the amount of their bets to $25 on each spin but late yesterday reduced it to $5. Walford said the change was "part of our system."

The club management began to show signs of concern but insisted it wouldn't change the wheel unless the players requested.

Escanaba Eagles Hold Anniversary Meeting Sunday

Puppy Love Blamed; Girl, 15, Shot Dead At Rutherford, N. C.

Rutherford, N. C., May 18 (AP)—Coroner T. E. Hightower said today he plans to ask for a murder warrant against 16-year-old Roy Daniels as the aftermath of a "puppy love" shooting that brought death to a 15-year-old orphan girl.

The girl, Henrietta Grier of Atlanta, Ga., died several hours after she was shot five or six times with a .22 caliber rifle early Sunday, the coroner said. She was a student at a non-profit orphanage here.

Young Daniels, whose home is also at Atlanta, was found critically wounded in the girl's room. The school's superintendent, W. E. Sweatt, said a "puppy love affair" led to the shooting. Sweatt said Roy objected to dates Henrietta had with other boys.

Roy and two brothers, the superintendent said, lived in the basement and tended the boiler of the dormitory where the girl lived.

When he found Roy lying wounded in the girl's room, Sweatt added, the youth asked him to "finish the job."

Wind Fans Palace Fire In The Hague

The Hague, May 18 (AP)—A fire severely damaged Queen Wilhelmina's Noordeinde Palace today, raging for an hour before it was brought under control.

Witnesses said the flames, fanned by a strong wind, probably were started by a torch used by painters, who were burning off old paint on the roof.

The 67-year-old queen and other members of the royal family were not at the palace, built in 1553 and the residence of the Orange dynasty for centuries. It has been used for official receptions only in recent years. Wilhelmina is staying at Het Loo, her summer residence in the country.

Swat That Fly Now And You Kill Five Billion

"Every fly you kill right now means thousands less to endanger you and disturb you in August. Now is the time to plan for a fly-free summer," according to LaRue Miller, environment engineer of the Michigan department of health.

A housefly beginning its reproductive activities, now, in early spring may have over five billion descendants by autumn if all its offspring live and reproduce. One pair of flies, mating now, will have become the ancestors, by late summer, of more flies than 1,000 men can swat in the same period.

Flies transmit the germs of typhoid fever, poliomyelitis, dysentery, diarrhea, tuberculosis, cholera and certain other diseases, advises Dr. William Harrison, director of the Delta-Menominee health district.

For the most part flies are born in manure piles, cesspools, outdoor toilets and rotting garbage. They spread disease when they carry filth from these places and from other human and animal refuse and excreta to the food on your dining room table, food being prepared in your kitchen, or food stored in your cupboards. Some flies feed on excreta and refuse, others just walk through it.

The first step in controlling the danger and nuisance of flies is to eliminate their breeding places according to William Hendrickson, health department sanitarian. Manure piles, rotting vegetable and animal matter, foul garbage cans and dumps, decaying human and animal excreta and refuse, cesspools and unclean chicken coops, pig pens and cow sheds should be kept free of flies. Another step is to adequately and tightly screen all buildings where food is stored and prepared, where milk is handled, or where humans live.

The first step in control is to spray inside and outside surfaces of buildings with a 3 per cent solution of DDT and paint screens with a 5 per cent solution of DDT once every six weeks. DDT is no more dangerous than the ordinary orchard spray materials. Do not eat it. Do not get it on food, and if you get it on you, wash it off.

Spray porches, the overhang of the roof, around the garbage can, all outside stables, toilets, milk houses, chicken coops, pig pens and the like.

Then swat every fly you see.

CAT MOURNS DOG

Chicago, May 18 (AP)—Sniffy, a female cat, is keeping a lonely vigil at the grave of her friend Chip—a dog.

Chip, two years old, was killed by an automobile Saturday. Max Eichner, owner of both animals, said Sniffy sits at Chip's grave in the rear of Eichner's home, and refuses to leave.

Mrs. Raleigh Hunt At Red Hat Cause Suit For $100,000

San Francisco, May 18 (AP)—That red hat Mrs. Kathie Zahn happened to be wearing started the ruckus, but she blames it all on the radio show.

So yesterday the Albany, Calif. woman filed suit for $100,000 damages for the rough handling she received when she alighted from a Trans-Bay train at the terminal here last Dec. 6.

It seems that the place was jammed with an excited mob, all intent on finding a "Mrs. Raleigh," who was supposed to be wearing a red hat at that time and place. They were hunting "Mrs. Raleigh" to win a radio-show program.

Mrs. Zahn says they tore her clothing, pulled her to the floor and otherwise mishandled her.

Art Linkletter, radio master of ceremonies, NBC, KNBC and 16 other defendants were named in the suit, which asks $25,000 for physical damages, $25,000 for injury to her nerves and reputation and $50,000 punitive damages.

ORE CARRIERS MAY BE BUILT

Lake Shippers Request Government Aid

Washington, D. C.—There will be a real shipbuilding boom on the Great Lakes if plans of the ore shipping companies materialize.

Of the 257 ships in the ore fleet, 70 percent are between 20 and 40 years old. Many are so old that it is necessary to get Canadian ships to help carry the 90,000,000 tons of ore needed to keep the steel mills going.

Thirteen of the ore shipping companies, accordingly, have applied to the United States maritime commission for the "trade-in" value on from 33 to 42 ships, representing a maximum of 333,000 tons. These ships are from 40 to 52 years old.

Under law the commission may make an allowance on these old ships which could be used as a down payment on new ships. The obsolete ships are from 6,000 to 7,000 tons, and the 13 firms propose to build 21 to 23 new and faster ships with a tonnage of about 17,000.

The obstacle to the proposal of the shipping companies, however, is that they want too much money for their old ships, in the opinion of maritime commission experts. They want $140 a ton, which is about 20 times what the government would get for them for scrap. The new ships, which would have cargo carrying capacity about three times that of the old ships, would cost $225 a ton.

The new vessels would be built at Great Lakes ports, including those in Wisconsin which have shipyards. The jobs would go out on bids. The boats would be privately owned and, according to Representative Weichel (Rep., Ohio), chairman of the house merchant marine committee, would be built "without any construction subsidy such as is paid to operators of foreign steamships." It is contended, however, that if the shipping companies get the $140 a ton "trade-in" they are asking, that would amount to a construction subsidy.

Howard Pelletier Is Supervisor Of Garden Township

Elmer LaCost has resigned as supervisor of Garden township and the vacancy has been filled by the appointment of Howard Pelletier to the position, according to a report to the office of the county clerk. The appointment was made by the Garden township board.

Pelletier will represent Garden township on the county board of supervisors. The unexpired term to which he was appointed continues to the 1949 township election.

LaCost was first appointed following the resignation of Harry Greeve, who resigned to accept appointment to the Delta county road commission. LaCost was elected supervisor in April, 1947, and the reason for his resignation was not announced.

Five Year Old Connects With Prize Rainbow

The youngest and, without a doubt, the proudest fisherman to enter his catch in the Escanaba Daily Press fishing contest, is Kenneth Swanson, 5 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Swanson, 617 South 14th street.

It happened this way. Kenneth was taken along on a fishing trip on the Escanaba River Sunday by his father, his brother, Oliver, Jr., and his uncle, Richard Ostlund. To keep the child occupied, his father gave him a rod, baited up the line with worms and told him to sit on the river bank and fish just like the rest of the fellows.

Suddenly they heard Kenneth yell. They found him half way down the bank, holding tight to the rod, with a 17½ inch rainbow trout on the end of the line. The little fellow was lifted back on the bank, and the fish, which weighed one pound and six ounces, landed.

And you probably have guessed it—Kenneth's catch was the only one of the day!

For a dance contest will be a part of the evening's entertainment, and the judge will be Mayor Robert E. LeMire of Escanaba. Dancing starts at 9 and will continue to 1 a. m., and tickets are now on sale.

It was reported today by John Anthony, cancer fund campaign chairman, that an Escanaba Girl Scout troop, Mrs. E. H. Niederbauer, leader, received an award for collecting the most contributions of any Girl Scout troop in the county in a recent tag day drive. The troop collected $122.

The National Forest Camps

THE National Forest Clear Lake camp will be available again this year to summer campers who want a unique and reasonably-priced summer vacation.

The camp is located on the shore of Clear Lake, eight miles from the village of Shingletown, which is the mailing address. It is readily accessible by state highways and Forest Service roads. Safe, modern and sanitary facilities in a beautiful forest environment far from the crowds, are available for vacationists at modest individual cost.

The Clear Lake camp is completely equipped with buildings and interior furnishings, electric light plant, water and sanitary systems to care for the comfort and health of up to 64 campers and the supervisory and service staff. There are two playgrounds, horseshoe courts, outdoor theater, two bathing beaches, diving float, rowboats and a landing dock. Outside fireplaces, tables and cupboards are provided for those who wish to cook their meals outdoors.

The large central buildings provide for general administration, recreation, dining and kitchen facilities for all campers. There are eight cabins, each containing eight metal cots and individual clothes lockers. Two lavatory buildings have showers, toilets, basins and hot water facilities. An infirmary contains a three-bed ward and doctor's and attendants' quarters.

A duplicate of this camp has been built near Sidnaw, in the Ottawa National Forest. The camps are rented to responsible organizations at $106.00 per week, the individual cost to members of a party of say 50 thus being around 2 dollars per week—a modest charge indeed for a lot of fun and service. Supplies, except fuel, must be provided by the campers.

Persons or groups interested in these outstanding outings should write or see the National Forest representatives at Escanaba or Ironwood. Some bookings have already been made, but other desirable summer time is open. Upper Michigan can well be proud of these camps. They provide a really different vacation amid lovely surroundings, in an area free from pests of all kinds.

Wallace A Realist?

PRAYDA, the official mouthpiece of the Kremlin, commenting upon Henry Wallace's foreign relations theories as expounded in campaign speeches by the third party candidate, praises Wallace for his "realism and his consistency," but questions Wallace's right to stand as a judge between the United States and Russia.

Wallace is not a realist nor is he consistent. Wallace is a dreamy-eyed theorist with his head in the clouds. He prates about peace, an objective to which all of the American people subscribe, but his only program for peace is a program of appeasement. After the tragic lesson of Munich, no realist could suggest appeasement as a means of preventing war.

As for Wallace's right to stand as a judge between the United States and Russia, the American people can well agree with Pravda that Wallace is no man for that chore. The Communists who are flocking to Wallace's support provide proof enough that democracy as we know it in America would soon disappear under a government headed by Henry Wallace in the White House.

Every political party in the United States, excluding the Communist party itself, has disavowed Communist support. That is, every one except Henry Wallace's so-called Progressive Party. Wallace has openly bid for the Communist backing and the biggest share of his campaign fund has been contributed by Communist-front organizations.

Father Flanagan

THE sudden death in Berlin, Germany, of Father Flanagan, founder of Boys' Town, has removed from the service of humanity a man who preached a philosophy of kindness to wayward boys and who practiced what he preached. Moreover, he did so in a way that showed the world a new and more understanding approach to the problem of juvenile delinquency.

Father Flanagan—he preferred that title to Msgr. Flanagan, his official title bestowed upon him by his church—contended that there is no such thing as a bad boy. By that he meant that no youth is bad by nature or by choice, but that his badness is a result of a bad environment to which he has been subjected through no fault of his own. Pursuing this theory Father Flanagan contended that a wayward boy could be converted to a life of useful citizenship by providing a proper environment that would bring out the youth's inherent qualities of goodness.

The success of Boys' Town, Nebraska, proved this theory. Father Flanagan's home included a large number of boys who had been arrested for serious crimes, even the crime of murder. His "graduates" include many persons now holding responsible jobs in industry and business.

Aside from the good citizenship that he developed at Boys' Town, Father Flanagan's success has given encouragement to similar programs throughout the world. More importantly, he has shown the way to countless thousands of parents to assume the parental responsibility that is theirs for leading their own children to a normal life of happiness and usefulness.

Oleo Fight Nears End

SENATOR WILEY of Wisconsin, whose state has adopted the most discriminatory legislation against margarine of any state in the union, has announced that he will go to "extreme measures to defeat the oleo lobbyists" on the margarine tax repeal bill now before the Senate.

Senator Wiley may not realize it but the so-called "oleo lobby" is simply a demand by American consumers for the repeal of excessive taxation on margarine so that this product can be marketed on a truly competitive basis. The "oleo lobby" is primarily the American people but the dairy lobby that has foisted such discriminatory legislation upon the buying public represents only those groups who produce, process and distribute milk and milk products. Up to now the dairy lobby has shown strength all out of proportion to its members, but no lobby, regardless of its financial support, can effectively combat the strength of an united consuming public. That is what the dairy interests are up against in this fight.

The measure has already passed the House and is now before the Senate finance committee. If it is allowed to reach the Senate floor, which now seems probable, the bill will almost certainly be passed. The president's signature is assured.

The oleo fight will then be over as far as the national government is concerned, but the battle will undoubtedly be resumed before the various state legislatures, many of which adopted legislation even more discriminatory than the federal government. In Michigan, for instance, it is illegal to sell colored margarine and this restriction will continue regardless of the results of the present congressional fight on the margarine issue. It is even illegal to serve margarine in public institutions, even though such institutions cannot afford butter.

SCHOOLS AND INDUSTRIES

(Sault Ste. Marie News)

For years the Chamber of Commerce in its quest for new industries has been told that industry goes where there are good schools, churches, labor market, raw material and power.

Industries do consider education opportunities in communities. The school election, then, had the effect of discouraging new industry because our schools are deplorably overcrowded.

What's more, the argument has been put up that this is no time to build new schools because of high construction costs. If that's true of schools in Sault Ste. Marie, then assuredly it must be true of new industrial building.

Since industry and school are prominent in the picture of "Our Community Tomorrow" and we turn down school building, we also left-handedly discourage industry from building. If we tell the world this is no time to build new schools because of costs, we also tell the world that this is no time for industrial expansion in the Sault because of construction costs. This negative, backward attitude is a blow to schools and industry too.

It is pure inconsistency for us to expect private industry to plunge money into industrial expansion, when we publicly proclaim that this is no time for it. Let's get over this defeatist, backward, discouraged attitude and build schools and industry too. After all, school building is a new industry in itself.

SECRET OF GOOD WRITING

Akron: I have a consuming ambition to be a writer. What do you consider the most important English rules for good writing?

H. B.

Answer: Good writing is not a question of grammar. Some of the worst writing I know of is grammatically beyond reproach. The average English textbook is a good (or should I say "horrible") example of how not to write.

Writing serves one purpose, and one purpose only—to communicate ideas. Therefore, the secret of all good writing is clarity of expression. Two thousand years ago, Quintilian, Roman rhetorician and critic, put it thus: "The writer should so write that his readers not only may, but must, understand."

The same thought was expressed by the French author Anatole France: "D'abord la clarté; puis encore la clarté; et enfin la clarté. (First, clearness; next, clearness; finally, clearness)."

Trying to write elegantly is the cause of almost all bad writing. Dr. Samuel Johnson, the great lexicographer, never forgot the advice given him by a dour old tutor: "Read over your writings, and, whenever you meet with a passage you think is particularly fine, strike it out!"

The writer must have something worthwhile to say. But what he has to say should be told in accurate, concise, and simple language.

Of course I am not suggesting that the writer throw grammar out the window. On the other hand, I do say that stilted, over-precise, and schoolmasterish writing

Washington. (NEA)—The private industry electric power lobby thinks it has won a big victory. It has succeeded in persuading the House Appropriations Committee to knock out an item of $4,000,000 to start construction on a Tennessee Valley Authority steam generating plant at New Johnsonville, Tenn.

In both House and Senate uphold this action, further development of the TVA project—admittedly one of the greatest of New Deal accomplishments—will have been dealt an irreparable blow.

The issue is not as local as it may sound. If TVA is stopped in its tracks, every other public power project in the country will be set back. The all-important question is, therefore, what the private power industry has to offer as a substitute. Are there private utility companies with plans all drawn, ready and waiting to go in and do what they don't want TVA to do?

Curell L. Smith, Washington representative of the National Association of Electric Companies, admits there are not. They have no plans. But they also want TVA to have no plans.

Mr. Smith, the $65,000-a-year, highest-paid lobbyist in Washington, is generally given credit for having master-minded the campaign to stop TVA and public power expansion.

He says that, if any private industries in the Tennessee valley need more power, or if any towns or cities in the area need any more power, they should either go build those power plants themselves or else make a contract with some private utility company to build and operate them. In short, private industry in this case has no ready substitute for public power.

CAN'T COMPETE WITH TVA

There are good reasons why private utilities are not ready to jump in and do this job. Any private power company that would go into the valley and try to sell electric current at TVA rates would find itself in trouble. It just couldn't compete.

What the issue boils down to is that private utilities don't want to go into an area and build electric generating capacity too far ahead of actual demand. The private power industry must wait until it has an assured market before it builds new generating plants.

The TVA power development has been built on just the opposite theory. It has built new dams and power plants well ahead of immediate demands, anticipating future growth. Then it has gone out and sold its excess power to new customers. It has attracted new industries into the area. And the whole region has prospered as a result.

The Oak Ridge atomic energy plant, Monsanto chemicals, Reynolds metals and other big industry and war plants were located in this region because cheap TVA power was available. Aluminum Company of America, which was in the area even before TVA, was able to expand its plant because excess power was waiting. Many smaller industries and farm co-ops have developed for the same reason.

NEW PLANT DESIGNED

These industries are now anticipating that they will need more power, say TVA Chairman Gordon Clapp. It is to meet these new demands that TVA wants to build the New Johnsonville steam plant. With the New Johnsonville plant in operation, hydro-electric power generated at the dams in eastern Tennessee would be left for the big industrial users near Knoxville. And it would prevent excessive line losses in transmission to the Memphis area.

One of the arguments used by the power lobby to defeat the steam plant project is that TVA already has ample generating capacity to take care of its "preference" customers for years to come. These preference customers are the government war plants, municipalities and farmers' co-ops, which use 40 per cent of TVA power.

The power lobby does not claim that TVA has enough capacity to meet the future demands of all its customers, including the big industries like Alcoa, Reynolds and Monsanto, which are perfectly satisfied with TVA power because it's cheaper than power they could generate themselves or buy from private utilities.

What the private power lobby wants is to reduce TVA power operations to a mere by-product of navigation and flood-control developments, or else require that all public power be sold wholesale "at the bus bar" to private utilities, so they could then sell it to retail customers at a profit.

This would admittedly be a nice business for the private power companies, if they could get away with it.

is nearly always bad, for the reason that what is being said is obscured and destroyed by how it is being said.

Avoid long, unfamiliar words. Make sentences short and to the point. If an Anglo-Saxon word will express your thought, use it, instead of its Latin or French equivalent. Rain is a better word than inundation; fire is better than conflagration; outcome is better than eventually.

A final warning: Do not overwrite. Good taste in writing is like good taste in clothes. Simplicity never offends. The too elaborate, in both dress and language is vulgar.

This article contains such good advice that I think I shall put it into practice in my own writing.

Do you use the indefinite article "an" before words beginning with "h," as in "an historical"? Mr. Colby's leaflet, C-2, explains why it is correct to use "a" before such words.

"How's Business?"

Good Evening

By Clint Dunathan

ETERNAL FEMININE—An aide tells the story of an Escanaba family returning home Sunday evening after an all-day picnic. Approaching Rapid River where the State Police have a road blockade in their search for a convict escaped from state prison at Marquette, talk in the car became excited and full of speculation.

Where was the convict now? Was it possible he would show up in Escanaba?

Was he dangerous?

Arriving at the blockade, the head of the family slowed down the car. The children were big-eyed and impressed because of their proximity to the man hunt. The State Police officer suddenly swung his flashlight toward the car. Briefly its beam of light spotted each face in the car. Then the officer waved his hand and the car moved on. The young daughter of the family began patting her hair while she exclaimed: "He flashed the light right in my face—and my hair is such a sight!"

WORM IS SECOND—Many people have the erroneous impression that if you keep earthworms in your garden soil, the soil will be benefited. In fact there is one man in Illinois who makes a business of selling earthworms to "plant" in your garden.

The other day we asked Joe Heirman, county agricultural agent, whether "importing" earthworms helped the soil. He was amused, but he explained that earthworms prefer a fertile soil or one rich in organic matter. If the soil is naturally rich, or you improve it with compost and fertilizer, the worms will appear and multiply of their own accord.

"Earthworms induce a good physical condition of the soil and a large earthworm population is desirable," said Heirman. "But there is no foundation for the idea that earthworms will 'build up' the soil."

MODEST—Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Sharp arrived "home" in Escanaba early Monday morning from China, and here they were reunited with their four children at the home of Mr. Sharp's sister, Mrs. Louis Amundsen, 713 South 17th street. It is the first time in several years the Sharp family is together, for they were separated by the Japanese in China at the beginning of the war.

The Sharps are modest people, but their difficulties, their hardships, their courage and now their reunion in this country is good news. Since it is news, the newspaper reporters have interviewed Mr. and Mrs. Sharp and their children several times. Latest interviews were in Escanaba and the time before that was in China when Mr. and Mrs. Sharp left to come to the United States to join their children.

"We managed to dodge the reporters when we arrived on the West Coast," said Clinton Sharp. He smiled, adding modestly, "There really isn't much of a story to tell."

By this time you probably have read news stories about the Sharp family reunion, and you know what a heart-warming story it is.

the conservation department at Newberry, reports that the deer population in that area is learning to encounter a new hazard.

The coming of quieter, faster diesel locomotives is believed responsible for the larger number of deer killed along a three-mile stretch of track in McMillan deer yard, DeWard says. Bodies of nine deer were found along the three-mile stretch of right-of-way, and other fatally injured deer are believed to have managed to get into the cover of the woods on either side.

Similar deer kills have been reported along the track west of McMillan and near Trout Lake.

AMONG THE LARGEST—The C. & N. W. ore docks at Escanaba are among the largest on the Great Lakes, according to a report in Skilling's Mining Review. The widest dock is at Port Arthur, Canada, and is 64 feet 8 inches.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington—Secretary of Defense James Forrestal and Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall had a secret session with the Senate armed services committee the other day at which Royall stated that he would resign before ordering segregation abolished in the Army.

This significant incident took place after southern senators mutinied against the draft bill and demanded a guarantee that white inductees would not be forced to serve with Negroes.

Immediately a four-bell alarm was put through to Secretary of Defense Forrestal. He hurried up to Capitol Hill, bringing with him as a reinforcement Secretary Royall, a native of North Carolina.

Forrestal explained to senators that any amendment protecting the right of an inductee to serve exclusively with members of his own race would be "unworkable from an administrative point of view."

Senator Russell of Georgia, however, brushed this aside. Picking up a copy of the president's civil rights message, Russell read:

"During the recent war and in the years since its close we have made much progress toward equality of opportunity in our armed services with regard to race, color, religion or national origin. I (Truman) have instructed the secretary of defense to take steps to have the remaining instances of discrimination in the armed services eliminated as rapidly as possible."

"What about this?" demanded the senator from Georgia, laying down the message and glaring at Forrestal. It looked, observed Russell, as if the secretary of defense had a directive from his commander-in-chief to abolish segregation.

ROYALL TO RESCUE

Forrestal mumbled that there was no cause for alarm. Whereupon Royall interceded: "I don't believe that was in the mind of the president. If such a provision is put into operation, I will no longer be secretary of the Army."

Forrestal remarked that the alarm of some members of the committee is ill-advised, but Russell and Maybank of South Carolina stuck to their guns.

"I am not going to vote for any bill, not knowing what the president is going to do," snapped Maybank.

The above amendment upholding segregation was not submitted by Russell, as reported in the press, but by an anti-segregation Yankee, New Hampshire's Senator Styles Bridges. Bridges made it clear, however, he did not support the bill, only offered it "for discussion."

Actually Russell had introduced an earlier amendment, recognizing only two races—the "principal minority race" and all other Americans. It further stipulated that officers disobeying the segregation clause would be court-martialed for "conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman."

Maj. Gen. Verne D. Mudge, Army adviser to the Senate armed services committee, approved Russell's general idea, but suggested toning down the language.

Southern senators accepted this sugar-coated, rewritten amendment, but Senator Russell appealed for "someone outside the south" to introduce it. That was how Bridges happened to agree to bring it up for discussion, though not to support it. After hearing it read, however, he gasped, "My God, I'm sick," and walked out.

When the debate reached the voting point, Oregon's Senator Wayne Morse protested against taking the roll call in secret.

"I want no secrecy," he blurted. "I have been accused of leaking information to Drew Pearson, and I don't want a secret vote, then be blamed when it appears in Drew Pearson's column."

So the results of the vote were announced, 7 to 4 against the segregation amendment, but not how each senator voted. However, here is the secret roll call: Hill of Alabama, Byrd of Virginia, Maybank of South Carolina voted "present" on the final bill, but with Russell for the amendment. Gurney of South Dakota, Wilson of Iowa, Saltonstall of Massachusetts, Morse of Oregon and Baldwin of Connecticut voted against segregation. Gurney also held the proxy of Wyoming's Robertson. Bridges stayed away, and Kilgore of West Virginia was absent.

GOP ECONOMY

Nebraska's economy—preaching Senator Kenneth Wherry sent off 93 political telegrams the other day, and charged them to the U. S. government whose funds he is always slashing.

Wherry wired at government expense to 93 Republican county chairmen in Nebraska as follows:

"Please convey my sincere greeting to your Republican county convention and regret I cannot join you. . . . Your session is vital for it fixes the grass-roots pattern for success we can confidently anticipate if everyone does his share in behalf of our common goal."

When political opponents exposed what he had done, Wherry hurriedly paid up the bill, claimed the Western Union operator had made a mistake.

BIG CHANGE IN WHITE HOUSE
Reminiscing with friends recently, Mayor David Lawrence of Pittsburgh, who is Democratic national committeeman from Pennsylvania, uncorked the following barbed comments:

"Back in the days when I used to call on Franklin Roosevelt, he always made a point of asking me: 'How are things going in Pennsylvania? What are they saying about me?'"

"F. D. R. always wanted to know the score, especially about any trends in public opinion. But Harry Truman, while I admire his honesty and sincerity, never asks us questions like that. It isn't that he isn't interested, but he depends too much on a little clique of White House advisers to tell him what's going on in the country."

Small Firms Plan Autos Under $1000

Detroit, May 18 (P)—The Automobile Manufacturer Association reports that since the war 23 new firms have announced plans for entering the passenger car field in the United States.

Most of them plan very small cars, which they announce will sell at below $1,000. Seven in this group plan three-wheel vehicles. Three would build "flying cars"—combination highway and air vehicles, and one company plans motorized rickshaws to sell in China.

Two designers of racing cars have announced plans to build full-size passenger cars. One has a rear engine design; the other plans custom build cars to sell at about $25,000.

The Auto Manufacturers' Association says that in 1921 89 makes of passenger cars were in production in the United States. Today there are 20 makes, two of them manufactured for the first time in 1946.

Only one of today's 20 makes has been able to stay in the price field below $1,000. Several large

Tips On Talking
Help Teen-Ager

Ever wish you could feel as much at ease with older people as you do with school chums of your own age?

If you dread visits with older people because you can NEVER think of anything to say, here are a few tricks which may help you to develop more composure.

Take your time when you enter the room. Don't dart in hurriedly. Standing up straight and walking slowly gives others the impression that you are relaxed and at ease. Taking a deep breath before you answer a question helps calm down a nervously shrill voice.

Have two or three amusing anecdotes about school life ready to tell because the chances are that someone will ask you how you're doing in school. Or you can ask a leading question such as "We're studying labor legislation in civics class and I find it hard to understand such-and-such. Could you explain it to me?" Or explain a social problem that has come up in school and ask for opinions from older and presumably wiser heads as to how it should be handled.

WALLEYE WILL ATTRACT MANY

Season Will Open Here On Friday, May 21

Escanaba's far-famed wall eye fishing will be at its height when the Upper Peninsula Swedish Pioneer Centennial celebration is held here on June 15.

The season on the wall eye, also known as pike-perch and dory, will open Friday, May 21, but it's in mid-June when they're really hitting. The tasty walleye has come to furnish the most sustained and reliable fishing in the Escanaba area. Always a favorite with the angler, the walleye, as a direct result of a successful effort at suppression of illegal take during the spring spawning runs, has enjoyed a phenomenal increase in Bay de Noquet and Green Bay in recent years.

A voracious feeder, the walleye is taken by deep trolling with live bait or with bright spoons. Bait casting with submersible lures is effective, and at night, when the fish come into the shallows to feed, even the bass type of floating lures take large numbers.

About the last week in May, shortly after the end of the spawning runs, the fishing for walleyes begins in earnest here. It reaches its peak about mid-June and continues generally good until the freeze-up in late fall. Last year a number of good catches were made by anglers who stood on the shore ice and cast into comparatively shallow water a few yards offshore.

Night after night last summer over 150 rowboats and outboard-powered craft could be seen on one stretch of the bay, beginning about a quarter mile south of the Escanaba city limits and extending about a mile and a half south. Other sections of the bay that are accessible to small boats were found to be productive although not so heavily fished.

Walleyes caught last summer ranged from 1 1/2 pounds 11 ounces down, with over a dozen that weighed over nine pounds each caught in the space of one week by patrons of one boat livery. While fishermen are allowed to take 10 walleyes from the bay in one day, the fish take the hook so rapidly that conservation officers found one boat containing three fishermen and 64 big pike-perch.

Prince Bertil of Sweden will fly from Detroit via Nationwide Airlines to attend the Swedish Centennial Celebration in Escanaba on June 15. In his party will be prominent leaders in the Swedish industrial, educational, religious and political fields. The Sotiaflickorna troupe of gymnasts will give performances in the afternoon and evening. The C&NW railway's Pioneer Centennial train will be on exhibition throughout the day.

Memorial Atomic Research Center Planned At U. M.

Ann Arbor, Mich. (AP) — University of Michigan President Alexander Ruthven has announced plans for the creation of an atomic research center as a memorial to students alumni and staff who died during the recent war.

Plans for financing the memorial, entitled the Phoenix project—after the mythological conversion of old life into new—will be completed this summer, he said. President Ruthven termed it an "ever-growing project, probably starting with $2,000,000 or more."

According to preliminary plans, the memorial will consist of "an academy of scholars devoting their full creative efforts to converting atomic energy to peaceful uses for the benefit of the human race."

Stockings Required To Try On Shoes At Charleston, S. C.

Charleston, S. C., (AP)—Things are getting tough in Charleston.

You've got to wear stockings or socks when you buy a pair of shoes in a store. The health department has issued in order making it unlawful for a customer to try on new shoes when barefooted. There's too much danger of athletes foot and other fungus diseases, the health department says.

Violators face a fine up to $100 or imprisonment up to 35 days. Average top speed of automobiles in 1926 was about 57 miles an hour; today it is more than 80.

Courtesy And Smiles, New Order For VA

Washington, (AP)—Workers for the Veterans administration are getting a classroom course in courtesy.

"Be pleasant," the government agency sternly ordered its 194,000 employees. "Smile!"

Noting that veterans—its chief customers—"are peculiarly sensitive to impersonal or brusque treatment," the VA sent out orders to all branch offices to start classroom training immediately. For everybody.

Even information clerks, guards and elevator operators, the VA pointed out, "frequently meet the public face to face."

So it issued an outline for classroom use, including a dramatization designed to test the temper control of a man of iron.

Here are the stage directions for a mythical disgruntled veteran who confronts an information clerk in the VA drama:

"You are to adopt a belligerent attitude. You feel that you have been given the run-around on a disability claim. Now you're coming to the regional office personally and you won't take no for an answer."

"You tell the first VA employee you see all about your troubles. You figure she's giving you the brushoff. You may even have several uncomplimentary remarks to make about the inefficiency and red tape of the VA before you leave."

"In general, you will be giving the information clerk a bad time."

Now all the instructor has to do is find someone to play the information clerk. There are instructions for her, too—

How to demonstrate personal interest in the visitor: "Obtain his name and use it. Give your undivided attention."

How to determine the visitor's needs: "Let him phrase his own questions. Don't press him. Be patient."

How to handle the demanding or unreasonable visitor: "Do your best to satisfy him. Don't show your irritation if he isn't satisfied. Refer him to your supervisor as a last resort."

"First impressions, such as those made by receptionists and information clerks, are often lasting ones," the agency reminded its workers.

There was one word of caution, however, in the VA's advice to its information clerks. "Be courteous," said the agency, choosing its words carefully—"But not too informal."

Mobile X-Ray Unit In County May 19 To 26

The Mobile X-ray Unit of the Michigan Department of Health will be in Schoolcraft county from May 19th through the morning of May 26th for the purpose of taking chest x-rays. The x-rays are made without charge and everyone over 14 years of age is urged to have his chest x-rayed.

The schedule is as follows: May 19th, afternoon and evening, Seney Hotel. May 21st, morning and afternoon, Manistique Paper Mill. May 24th, morning and afternoon, Manistique, Michigan Dimension company. May 25th, afternoon and evening, Manistique, Chamber of Commerce Building. May 26th, morning only, Manistique, Chamber of Commerce Building.

Michigan pioneered in the use of the small x-ray in state-wide tuberculosis case finding. When the Michigan Department of Health obtained its first mobile x-ray unit in October of 1940, it was the first of its kind in the country, possibly in the world. Its early use was in the Upper Peninsula. Now the department has five of these units, the fifth being delivered in 1947. More than 770,000 people have been screened for chest abnormalities by the five units in the past seven years. More than 50,000 persons will walk through the newest unit and have their chests x-rayed each year.

All each person does is to write his own address on a postal card and fill out another card giving his name and the name of his doctor. He then walks into the bus, stands up in front of the "camera" and his x-ray is made. He does not have to remove any of his clothing. The x-ray takes less than a minute. If his chest is normal he will receive the return addressed card in about two weeks. If the x-ray shows an abnormal condition, his physician will be notified and he will be advised to see his physician for further examination.

At the present time about one out of each 100 x-rayed by the units in the state has an abnormal chest and about one in each 500 has active tuberculosis which requires hospitalization.

Legion Auxiliary
Will Sell Poppies
On May 28 and 29

Memorial Poppies, replicas of those blossoms told of in that immortal poem "In Flanders Fields," will be sold in Manistique on Friday and Saturday, May 28 and 29 under the auspices of Unit 83 of the American Legion Auxiliary.

The shipment, which recently arrived, was made up of flowers made by disabled veterans of both wars working under the supervision of the Grand Rapids department of the Auxiliary.

"Making these flowers has provided interesting employment for veterans at the hospital during the winter and spring months," explained Mrs. Rhoda Ekberg, poppy chairman of the local unit. "It has helped keep their hands and minds busy, relieving them of long hours of tedium and contributing to their occupational therapy value toward their recovery."

"Veterans are paid for what they produce and this has also helped augment funds required by their families and also, in cases of unmarried veterans, helped them lay up funds against the time when they leave the hospital and start earning their livelihood again."

Poppies will be sold by volunteer workers throughout the city on the days designated.

Confusion Over Time
In U. P. Clearing Up

Marquette, Mich. — Although confusion still exists in some border cities, the time zone muddle in the Upper Peninsula is gradually clearing up, with most counties adopting Eastern Standard or "fast", time for the summer.

Officially at this moment, there are three U. P. counties on Central Standard time, while the other 12 are on Eastern Standard, or "daylight saving", time. Actually, however only Menominee county will adhere strictly to the "slow" time during the summer.

Marquette residents, who observe Eastern Standard time from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday in September, were eager to see Iron Mountain, a city with which many people here have considerable dealing, go on "fast" time for the summer, even if Dickinson county remained on "slow" time.

Kingsford Changes
In spite of a petition signed by a thousand persons and an urgent request from industrial heads, Kingsford took a different path from its sister city, Iron Mountain, by remaining on slow time. Recently, however, the Ford plant in Kingsford—changed to Eastern Standard.

In a hurried special session, the Kingsford city council adopted a "fast time" resolution. This week the village of Sagola followed suit. This leaves only a few small communities in Dickinson county on slow time.

In Gogebic county, the picture also has changed. An informal poll taken in Ironwood showed 1,219 people were for and 759 against fast time.

The Ironwood city commission held a special meeting to consider the time issue. Fast time was defeated. Last week another special meeting was called, with the same result. This week, however, the commission, taking into account the people's poll, voted to adopt fast time, starting midnight Saturday, May 15.

It is expected that most of Gogebic county will follow Ironwood.

Trouble Again In Fall
It means travelers going from one end of the Peninsula to the other can be fairly sure the community they are in is on Eastern Standard time, except in Menominee county.

Confusion will come again in the fall, however.

Ironwood, for example, will return to Central Standard time the first Sunday in September. Marquette, Baraga, Alger, Iron and Ontonagon counties and most of Dickinson county will return to slow time the last Sunday in September. Houghton, Keweenaw, Delta, Mackinac, Luce, Chippewa and Schoolcraft counties are on

Seven Ore Trains Move in One Day

Iron River—Ore shipments from Iron River district mines to the docks at Escanaba are building up what may be a record tonnage to help the steel mills turn out materials urgently needed by American industry in post-war reconstruction.

Something of a record is being set today with the scheduled departure of three big 5,100-ton trainloads of ore this morning, each powered by a big J-4 North Western mainline freight locomotive.

The big Jays with their deep throated and melodious whistles wailing mournfully rolled into the Stambaugh yards last night to turn-about for the cargo haul into the Bay De Noc ore docks.

Another evidence of the hurry to dispatch ore needed by the blast furnaces is the dispatching of seven trainloads of ore in a 24-hour period Saturday. Tim Murphy, district yardmaster at Stambaugh, reported.

Drum-Beating
Snappers, tulips, daffodils and trilliums decorated the Grace Lutheran church, Sugar Bush, Wis., on Saturday afternoon, May 8, for the carriage of Miss Elaine Mae Drum, city, daughter of Andrew Drum, Banat, Mich., and Lowell Breitling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Breitling, Sugar Bush, Wis. The nuptial vows were read by the Rev. Harvey Kahrs at 2:30 o'clock.

The traditional processional and recessional wedding marches were played by Melvin Russ, organist, and as the guests were assembling, "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love" were sung by Elfreida Haewisch.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, yoke of illusion, leg-o-mutton sleeves and a train. Her fingertip veil was gathered to a tiera of seed pearls. Red roses and white carnations formed her bridal bouquet. She wore as her only jewelry, a double strand of pearls, which were worn by the bridegroom's mother on her wedding day.

Miss Marian Pickard, city, was her foster sister's maid of honor. She wore a powder blue taffeta gown, styled with a sweetheart neckline, three quarter length sleeves and full skirt. Her matching shoulder length veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and flowers. Pink and white snapdragons and baby breath formed her bouquet. Miss Merita Murker, the bridesmaid, wore a gown identical to that of the maid of honor and carried a like bouquet.

The little flower girl, Judy Dernback, was dressed in a floor length gown of white taffeta and shoulder length veil attached to a headpiece of flowers. Robert Ruchdassel, the ringbearer, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Leon Ruchdassel served the groom as best man, and ushering were Myron Drum, Banat, Wis., Donald Pickard, Gladstone, Mich., and Richard Thuk, Sugar Bush, Wis.

Mrs. August Pickard, the bride's foster mother, was gowned in sheer blue print with black accessories, and the groom's mother chose gray crepe, with pink accessories. They wore like corsages of red carnations and baby breath.

Pink, blue and white decorations were used in the home and in the church parlors, which followed the colors worn by the bride and her attendants. A wedding dinner, with covers laid for 450 guests, was served in the church parlors, and a reception followed at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

In the evening a reception and dance, for the immediate family and friends was held in the region club rooms in New London, Wis. Lunch was served and the young couple greeted their friends at a table centered with a four tiered wedding cake topped with two white doves and a silver bell.

Eskymo Golfers Prime For U. P. Tourney

Escanaba high school golfers, who lost the Upper Peninsula championship to Menominee by a narrow margin last summer, are priming themselves to make a strong bid for the title when the peninsula prep linksmen gather on the Crystal Falls course Thursday, May 27. They will meet the Maroons in a dual match here tomorrow afternoon.

With many holes constructed on the side of a hill, the Crystal Falls course constitutes a stiff test of golf for anyone, and the Eskymos are intent on having their games groomed to the nth degree in an effort to bring the championship home.

In tuneup dual meets, the Eskymos have fared well. They opened with a 10-2 triumph over St. Joseph's parochial school in a match in which Ray Hirn, No. 1 Eskymo, shot par golf at his brother, Ronnie, No. 1 St. Joe golfer.

And last Saturday, they defeated the Menominee Maroons, 4-2. A match with Gladstone is being arranged as another tuneup for the U. P. classic.

Results of the Eskymo-Trojan match: Ray Hirn defeated Ronnie Hirn, 18 holes; Gerald Harris defeated Harold Van Effen, 18 holes; and Wayne Peterson defeated B. Williams, 14 holes.

Harris' victory over VanEffen were the only two points St. Joe salvaged. They tied the first round. Harris won the second nine and the 18 by a one stroke margin. They came to the last hole all square. Harris shot a five to six for Van Effen.

In the Menominee match, Ray Hirn shot a 37 at Ed Brown and Van Effen beat Ray Beyer with a 45. Kenneth Van Effen won two more points for the Eskymos by beating Ralph Haaseh and Robert Westoff.

Menominee's two points came on Robert LaLonde's victory over Dale Jackson with a 42 and James Beyer's win over Bill Ness.

Escanaba Boxers Score Victories In Boxing Show

Menominee, May 18 (Special)—Escanaba boxers made virtually a clean sweep in the Menominee boxing show at the Menominee theater here last night.

Jim Valentine scored a technical knockout over Ralph Queever of Marinette in 1:10 of the second round. James Froberg decided Walter Wendt, Menominee after flooring Wendt for a nine count in the second. Rod Lindstrom was too much for Gale Phalen of Marinette, Lindstrom winning by tko at the end of the first round.

John Rademacher knocked out Meland Labbs of Marinette in 1:05 of the third round after a bruising battle with the Marinette middleweight.

John Barr lost a decision to Don Dougherty of Manistique in an exhibition bout.

Bob Minor, Manistique flyweight, lost an unpopular decision to Loren Martell of Marinette in the curtain raiser. Allen Felch of Marinette dropped T. Burns of Kinsford in 20 seconds of the second round. Les Olson of Kingsford decided Stan Maedte of Marinette and Morrie Johnson, Kinsford, by tko in the third.

Willie Christman, Milwaukee Negro, clipped Vernon Dionne, Marinette, with a sharp left hook for a first round knockout in the semi-final and Lloyd Triplett, Milwaukee, decided Frank Hilton, Marinette, in the windup.

Braves Are Solid Nine After Shakey Start; 11 Wins In Last 15 Games

By Joe Reichler Associated Press Sports Writer

They may rave about the wonderful St. Louis Cardinal pitching staff. They may gape in awe at the New York Giants' devastating power. They may admire and envy Brooklyn's depth with its youth and speed. The solid team in the National league, however, is the Boston Braves.

Boston is not in first place. The Cards hold that spot and the Giants are second. The Braves are third, but only because they got off to a miserable start. They dropped six of their first seven games.

Since then Boston has won 11 and lost four, the best record by far, in the circuit for the period. Billy Southworth's men haven't lost since May 9.

They open a 14-game home stand tonight, boasting the league's No. 1 pitcher in Bill Voiselle, No. 2 batter in Tommy Holmes, the best fielding percentage of any club in the circuit and a four-game winning streak.

The Braves ended a successful road trip last night by crushing the Dodgers in Brooklyn, 12-3. It marked their fourth straight win over Brooklyn without a setback.

It also gave them a record of eight victories in 11 road games. No team in the league—and that includes the Cardinals—boasts three front line hurlers such as Boston's Johnny Sain, Warren Spahn and Voiselle. This trio has given up only three runs in Boston's last four games.

Another hot club, the Philadelphia Phils, defeated the New York Giants 7-1. The victory moved the Phils up to fourth place, only three percentage points behind the Braves.

Johnny Blatnik paced the Phils' 10-hit attack against Bobo Newsum and three successors. The rookie outfielder, picked up in the draft last fall cracked three hits in four times up to wrest the league's batting leadership from Boston's Tommy Holmes with .438 to .435. He has hit safely in nine consecutive games.

Those were the only games scheduled in the majors. Today the Philadelphia Athletics, winners of 12 of their last 13 games, invade the west as they attempt to improve upon their game and a half lead in the American league race. They meet the runner-up Cleveland Indians.

The New York Yankees, in third place two and a half games away from the top, take on the Browns in St. Louis. The fourth place Boston Red Sox, boasting a four-game winning streak, clash with the Tigers in Detroit.

The Cardinals, a game and a half ahead of the Giants, tackle the six place Dodgers in Brooklyn while the Giants take on last place Cincinnati in New York. Boston is host to Pittsburgh and Philadelphia meets the Cubs at Philadelphia.

Boudreau Tops American Loop Hitters-- .440

Chicago, May 18 (AP)—Lou Boudreau, Cleveland's manager-shortstop, slammed nine hits in 19 trips to the plate to soar into the American league batting lead with .440.

Boudreau's 11 point climb, in averages computed through Sunday's game, gave him a 43 point edge over his nearest rival, Boston's Ted Williams.

Al Zarilla of St. Louis, the leader a week ago, plunged to third place with an 84-point drop to .394.

Hoot Evers of Detroit was fourth with .360, followed by Ken Keltner, Cleveland, .356; George Kell, Detroit, .338; Dave Philley, Chicago, .324; Hank Majeski, Philadelphia, .321; Bob Dillinger, St. Louis, .316 and Pete Suder, Philadelphia, .313.

Boudreau also topped two specialized brackets—with 33 hits and 10 two-baggers.

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS

S P O R T S

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

In order that the Escanaba Daily Press sports department can provide adequate coverage to all baseball teams operating in this vicinity, we request that managers of winning teams this season telephone the Sports Editor, 692 collect, each Monday morning before 9 o'clock to report their Sunday games.

This cooperation is essential if you desire to see a story and box score of your favorite ball team on this page as soon as possible after the game is played. We are willing to do our part if you are willing to do yours.

We have a twofold purpose in making this announcement in the pillar today. First, because we are sincerely interested in providing you with the best possible local baseball coverage and secondly, because we want all baseball fans in this area to understand how the plan operates.

Like money in the bank, baseball stories and box scores do not grow on trees. They have to be reported. And the logical person to do this job—unless he can delegate the task to a reliable subordinate—is the manager of the winning team.

So if your favorite ball club is not being publicized on this page, don't blame the Press—just see the manager of that club and tell him to get on the ball.

Reporting one game is not too much to request. Each winning manager reports one game. On the receiving end, we will handle from 10 to 15 games each Monday morning throughout the local baseball season. See how it works!

This request is made to managers of teams in the southern division of the Rainbow (Escanaba, Gladstone, Trenary, Chatham and Manistique), to managers in the Bay de Noc, Central and Tri County Baseball leagues. Remember—it is the responsibility of the manager of the winning team to report the game to the Press.

Why do we say winning team managers? Because managers of losing teams have a habit of forgetting to call. It happened yesterday in Gladstone's 18-2 triumph over Manistique at Manistique. The box score was eventually resurrected after many telephone calls. And where did we find it? In Gladstone, not in Manistique.

Rounding up local baseball data yesterday was like trying to corral a jackrabbit. The Escanaba Bear-Trenary box was mislaid in somebody's car between here and Trenary. We dug up the scores of the Munising-Gwinn and Negaunee-Marquette games in the Rainbow but when we checked the Dilorite game at Chatham, we were told that we'd have better luck trying to find out the winner of a yo-yo contest in China.

But being English and stubborn (they're synonymous, aren't they?) we insisted at least on dispatching a pony express courier to the scene of the crime. We mean to have that Dilorite-Chatham score, podner, before the week's out.

Bigtime Golf Pros Having More Trouble

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

New York, May 18 (AP)—Another big blowoff in the pro golf business may take place during the P.G.A. tournament which starts tomorrow at St. Louis. . . . A lot of the boys now are peeved at George Seneiter because he continues tournament play while he's serving as chairman of the P.G.A. tournament committee. . . . One objection is that the money winners have to kick in a percentage of their purses to pay committee expenses, but Seneiter, traveling for free, won $850 at Philadelphia last weekend. . . . the solution to this series of squawks, of course, would be to pay a good man to take charge of tournaments and publicity and then cooperate with him, but that won't happen until the golf pros learn to act like professionals.

Ditto Dittmar

Joe Bedenk, Penn State baseball coach has solved the problem of identifying Jimmy and John Dittmar, identical twins on his ballteam, and at the same time he has completed what is probably the only double play made by a baseball coach. . . . Joe merely calls both the boys by their combined first names—"JimmyJohn."

One Minute Sports Page

An interesting if true report from the south is that two pro football clubs, one from each league, are just marking time until the end of the 1948 season before they shoot the salary works in offers to Georgia's Wally Butts. . . . Although Harvard won the Eastern crew racing championship

Baseball Stars Of Yesterday

Batting

Johnny Blatnik, Phillies—Collected three hits in four times at bat to extend his hitting streak through nine consecutive games and wrest the League's batting leadership from Boston's Tommy Holmes. Blatnik is hitting .438 to Holmes' .435.

Pitching

Blix Donnelly, Phillies—Pitched a four-hitter against the Giants as the Phils won 7-1. It was his fifth start and his fifth complete game.

NEW SOYBEAN WINS PRAISE

Hawkeye Variety Gets Much Attention

Ames, Iowa (AP)—A new soybean is good news for farmers producing the wonder bean of amazing uses. The new variety is named Hawkeye. It was developed by Charles R. Weber, Martin G. Weiss, and Robert R. Kalton in cooperative work of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and Agricultural Experiment Station of Iowa State College. It was tested cooperatively by U. S. D. A. and eight state agricultural experiment stations in the corn-soybean belt.

In five years of tests, Weber said, it gave yields about the same as the Lincoln variety, the best yielder previously developed, and higher than the Richland variety. It is as early as Richland, and a week earlier than Lincoln. It grows 4 to 5 inches taller than Richland, and is as good as Richland in ability to stand up in the field until harvesting. This had been a weakness of the Lincoln variety.

And in oil content, Hawkeye is as good as Lincoln, which has been the best yet in Iowa and comparable latitudes of the north-central region. Tests by the U. S. Regional Soybean Laboratory gave similar results, and showed that Hawkeye is well adapted to Northern Ohio, southern Michigan, northern Indiana, northern Illinois, south Wisconsin, north-eastern Nebraska, and southern South Dakota, Weber added.

Seed now is being produced for distribution to farmers, and the Hawkeye is expected to be in commercial production within a couple of years. It came from a cross of the Mukden and Richland varieties in work started in 1933. Soybean plants are used as forage and pasture for livestock and are sometimes plowed under as green manure and the meal and oil from beans have a growing list of different uses. Soybean meal is used in human food like flour and soy sauce, but largely in animal feeds, also in plastics, water paints, and glue. The oil is principally used in food products.

Joe Louis Is 'Tough And Mean Mentally'

Detroit, May 18 (AP)—Joe Louis, described by his manager as "tough and mean mentally," headed today for the New Jersey camp where he'll limber up for his forthcoming bout with Jersey Joe Wolcott.

After 32 days road work at Bloomington, Mich., Louis boarded a train here yesterday for Pompton Lakes, N. J., his manager, John Roxborough, was with him.

"Joe is in great shape both physically and mentally," Roxborough said. "He weighed 225 pounds Saturday. We want him to weigh 215 for the bout, so there certainly is no worry about him shedding another eight pounds."

Louis will fight Wolcott, whom he defeated last December, on June 23.

CLEAN CMCE SWEEP

Southern Michigan Prison Congested With 5,932 Inmates

The Warden said some prisoners may be transferred to the Detroit House of Correction, Marquette prison and the Waterloo camp to relieve congestion.

Government Pays Average of $2,839

Washington, (AP)—The average U. S. Government worker now makes $2,839 a year.

The Civil Service commission said so after a study of federal pay scales in effect last July. Bills are pending to give some 1,300,000 federal employees a raise, but Congress has not yet approved the proposed increases.

The commission reported 80 per cent of the federal job holders make from $1,500 to $3,500 a year, 3 per cent get less than $1,500 and the remaining 17 per cent earn $3,500 or more.

It noted that the $2,839 average 1947-48 salary was a boost over the 1946 figure of $2,680.

If Congress approves the proposed pay raises the workers would get $468 more if paid by the year or 25 cents an hour more, if employed on that basis. The pending measure also would increase postal service wages $585 a year with its hourly workers getting 30 cents more.

Same Old Red Propaganda Is Put Out Again

President Truman's press secretary, Charles G. Ross, anticipated a question concerning the Moscow radio broadcast when he met with newsmen this morning.

"The question is—" Ross again. "The Stalin-to-Wallace—" a reporter began.

"The answer is no comment," Ross said, and that ended it.

The nature of Stalin's proposals for discussions with the United States gave support to American officials' suspicions that Russia is pressing a "peace offensive" for diplomatic and propaganda advantage.

Since V-E day the United States and Russia have been at odds on almost every one of the issues Stalin listed in endorsing Henry Wallace's "open letter" of May 11 as a "concrete program" for possible settlement of differences.

There was no immediate hint whether the United States would reply at all—and if so what the nature of the response might be. Both the White House and the State Department were silent.

No reply necessarily is called for.

Stalin's proposals were not made to the American government. They were made in a statement broadcast by the Moscow radio in reply to an American political candidate's campaign statement. That candidate, Wallace, has long been at odds with the administration over foreign policy.

Beyond all this, the whole series of Russian maneuvers poses two big questions:

1. Are the Russians seriously attempting to discover some basis for a settlement with the United States?

2. Are they simply trying to throw the American stop-Russian-expansion program off balance? That is, are they trying to take the starch out of the European recovery program and block support for military aid to western European nations?

There is little in Stalin's statement pointing to anything except the second. The points he made

Faculty Liable, If Negligent in Case Of Athlete Mishap

Lansing, May 18 (AP)—College athletes injured in sports may hold faculty supervisors liable if the faculty member has been negligent, Attorney General Eugene F. Black said today.

Black ruled in response to a question by N. C. Bovee, business manager of the Central Michigan College of Education.

The attorney general, speaking of a faculty committee appointed to supervise athletics, said "faculty members would be liable for injuries arising out of athletic activities, if the negligence of the individual faculty member is the proximate cause of the damage or injury; other not."

The college itself, being engaged in a governmental function, cannot be held liable for injuries suffered through negligence of its employees, Black said.

Robert Dixon, U-M Net Coach, Resigns

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 18 (AP)—Robert Dixon, University of Michigan tennis coach, announces his resignation in favor of an assistant professorship at the University of Illinois.

The 30-year-old Dixon, who expects to finish work on his doctorate here this semester, said he would join the education staff at Illinois this summer.

A native of Syracuse, N. Y., Dixon studied at the University of Syracuse before coming to Michigan in 1946. He coached without pay to protect the National tennis ranking he had at the time.

NO CHANGE IN ABC

Detroit, May 18 (AP)—The 45th annual American Bowling Congress championships—so far a disappointment in the matter of scoring—closes the tenth week on an 80-day run today. Few threats to the current leaders remained in prospect. Another heavy eight-shift schedule yesterday failed to produce a single change in the high 10 standings board.

are mostly the same ones the Moscow radio hammers daily in its multi-lingual anti-American propaganda.

Fur Storage FACTS

you should know about Furs!

APPROVED AND INSPECTED BY THE FUR INSTITUTE OF AMERICA

PROPER STORAGE AND MOTH PROTECTION: Proper cleaning and storage lengthens the life of furs. Reliable storage gives complete protection against damage from moths. Moths are one of the greatest enemies of furs. They are a constant danger, particularly when your furs are not in use. Reliable storage protects your furs against irreparable damage from drying, summer heat which dries out the natural oils in the skins, causing them to split, crack and peel. There is nothing that can be done for skins in this condition. Reliable storage gives you absolute protection against loss from fire and from theft.

WARNING: Store your furs only with a reliable store. Store your furs where you see the Fur Institute of America seal of approval. It is your guarantee that the vaults have been inspected and pass all requirements for the proper storage of fur and fur-trimmed garments.

KEEP FURS CLEAN: All furs should be cleaned at least once every year. Dirt, dust and grime not only ruin the beauty of the fur but invite moths which can completely destroy your furs. Avoid unknown or irresponsible stores and cleaners. They may ruin your furs, in which event you will have no satisfactory recourse. Furs should be cleaned only by an approved furrier.
